

Introduction to Mountain Flying

Mountain flying is challenging and fun! Hone your flying skills and prepare to safely explore new destinations by joining the pilots at the Bakersfield Flying Club for an evening presentation on mountain flying. It will allow you to plan and execute a safe and enjoyable flight to one of the several mountain communities that are in our very own backyard. The presentation will include topics such as route planning, high density altitude performance, mountain weather flying and mountain airport entry and departure. Bring your questions for an informative evening that is sure to expand your personal flight envelope!

Directions: From Hwy 99, Merle Haggard Drive East to Airport Drive. South on Airport Drive to Skyway Drive.
